Numb. 3791.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 7. 1713.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 9.
Naples, November 4.

THE Winds having been contrary this Week past, have prevented the sailing of the Man of War and the Tartans which have on board a Spanish Regiment that was reviewed some Days ago. Besides, 'twas not judged convenient to let them put to Sea so weakly manned, many of the Seamen having retired into the Churches, or having hid themselves. To engage them to return to the Service, besides a Pardon (the greatest Part having not obeyed the Order issued for their repairing on board their Ships within 24 Hours on pain of Death,) a Month's Pay of their Arrears was offered them, which has brought most of them in. By the last Letters from Vienna, Count Daun received Order to cause the Woman to be tried, who stands charged with preparing and distributing the Slow Poison called Aqua Tufasia, and teaching divers Persons, whom she has discovered, to make it. He is also ordered, if Cardinal Pignatelli should make new Opposition against this Proceeding so necessary for the Publick Safety, under Pretence of maintaining the Immunity of the Place where she was fixed, to expel him the Kingdom, without having any Regard to the Censures of Excommunication which may be fulminated on this Account. The Edict which was published last Week, commanding all French and Spaniards to depart this City and Kingdom, extends to those who have been settled here Forty Years. By the last Review it appears, that there remain in this City 2500 German Foot, besides Horse. 'Tis advised from Palermo, that the King and Queen of Sicily had received the Submissions and Compliments of all the Towns and principal Lords of the Island, whom they had received very favourably; so that the Nobility and People were equally satisfied; and that the King had begun to inform himself of the State of the Finances, in order to put them on a better Foot and reform divers Abuses.

Rome, Nov. 11. The Pope has of late been pretty much indisposed of his Asthma, but is somewhat relieved by Medicines. No Resolution is yet taken on the Affair of Comacchio, more than to resume the Possession of the three Towers or Forts which the Germans have abandoned; and the Pope's Troops have entered them without any Opposition. But the Hopes we had that this abandoning of those Forts, was a Disposition to satisfy his Holyness as to the Restitution of that Place which he has so long demanded, and which the Court of Vienna have often put him in Expectation of, are not confirmed. On the contrary it appears those Posts were not abandoned, but because the Garrison of Comacchio is so diminished by Distempers, particularly by the Scurvy, that hardly one Third are remaining of the Soldiers who first entered it; so that the Officers were obliged to withdraw those whom they had detached to guard those 3 Towers. The Mortality among the Cattle does not decrease, notwithstanding all the Precautions which have been used, and which are continued very carefully; so that the Arable Lands lie uncultivated in several Places, which gives Cause to fear a Famine and even worse Consequences. The young Marquis del Buffalo is under Sentence of Banishment, for driving his Chaife over a Woman, who is like to lose her Life; but he refuses to obey, and is retired into a Church.

From the News-Letters printed at Boston in New-England.

From New-York, September 7. Last Week in a Supreme Court of Judicature of this Province, Joseph Berry of this City, Taylor, and James Mark, Engraver, were both convict of Counterfeiting our Four Pound Money-Bills; the first by a Jury of the County, the other by his own Confession; and both received Sentence of Death, and are to be hang'd on Wednesday next. They had not counterfeited above 13 Bills, which are all brought in, and Mark says the Plate is broke, and that he lost it in Pensilvania.

New-York, Sept. 14. On Tuesday last most of the Gentlewomen of this City waited upon his Excellency our Governor, addressing him earnestly with Prayers and Tears for the Life of Berry and Mark, that were condemned to be hanged on Wednesday last for Counterfeiting our Paper Money; whereupon his Excellency was pleased to pardon them.

Haywood, belonging to Boston; the other, Little, belonging to London; the Men all saved, as also the Lading, Sails, and Rigging; several small Vessels quite lost.

New-York, October 12. Last Week arrived the Sandford in 21 Days from Barbadoes, who tells us, That on the 27th or 28th of August there was a very great Hurricane, wherein 3 or 6 Vessels were lost at Barbadoes, and 28 at Martinico, where above 200 Men were drowned.

Piscataqua, Octob. 16. Yesterday arrived a Sloop from Cape Sables, who gives a melancholy Account of our Fishery. That on the 4th Instant, being the Lord's-Day, about 15 Sail of our Sloops and Ketches were lost and drove on Shore as they lay at Anchor in Port Letore, and other adjacent Harbours, by the Extremity of Weather, four of which belong to this River, the rest to Salem and Marblehead; all the Men are saved except Hawley, who with all his Crew were drowned.

Boston. On Monday last, the 12th Current, arrived here from Foyal in Her Majesty's Ship Adventure, Capt. Wede Commander, the honourable Francis Nicholson, Esq; Governor of the Province of Nova Scotia, or Arcadia, in North-America, and of the Town and Garrison of Annapolis-Royal; also General and Commander in Chief of all Her Majesty's Forces employed and to be employed in Nova Scotia, and in the Island of Newfoundland; who was received here with all Demonstrations of Joy by his Excellency our Governor, attended by the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governour, the Gentlemen of Her Majesty's Council, &c. the Troops of Guards and Regiment of Foot being under Arms, and followed by three Salvoes, as also by the Castle, Batteries, and Ships in the Harbour. On the said Day arrived here also Her Majesty's Ship Phoenix, Capt. Blacker Commander, from England, being the Station Ship for this Port.

The Speaker's Speech.

THE Commons in Parliament Assembled, in Obedience to your Grace's Commands, and according to ancient Usage, have proceeded to the Choice of one of their Number to preside in their Debates as Speaker of their House, and have commanded me to present my self to your Grace as the Person whom they have elected to that great and important Trust. To collect readily the true Sense of a numerous Assembly; to form the same into Questions in order to their final final Resolution; and to present their Conclusions, Declarations, and Petitions to your Grace in the best manner, and with full Advantage, is part of the Duty that Man undertakes who is hardy enough to accept so arduous a Province. And the Sense I have of my own Imperfections and Difficulties, make me tremble when I reflect on the Difficulties, under which learned, experienced, and wise Men have laboured in the Chair of that House. But when I consider that my Endeavours to serve Her Majesty and this Kingdom in the Chair of a former Parliament, were so acceptable to, and approved by the whole House of Commons, that they were pleased to express their Sense of them by a signal Mark of Respect after I ceased to be a Member of their House: When I consider, that out of many Gentlemen of great Abilities and Knowledge in the Laws and Methods of Parliament, the Commons have now again judged me capable to fill the Chair to their Expectation; I dare not put my own Fears and Diffidence of my self in Balance with their superiour Judgments. I delight my self with the agreeable Prospect of Unanimity in the House; and hope, as well as earnestly desire, their greatest Contest may be who shall shew most Zeal and Forwardness in expressing their Loyalty and Duty to Her Majesty, their firm Adherence to our excellent Constitution in Church and State, and the profoundest Respect to your Grace's Person and Government. Such a Temper may be reasonably expected under a chief Governour, who in addition to antient Nobility, greatest Officers of Honour and Trust in the State, and the favour of Her most excellent Majesty, is qualified to make us an happy People, by a discerning Judgment, consummate Wisdom, a mild and gracious Disposition and Temper of Mind, and an inclination to heal the Divisions and cure the Distractions of this once happy Kingdom. These Blessings the Commons promise themselves will be the Effects as well as eternal Honour of your Grace's Administration of the Government.

After the Speaker was approved, he made the usual Demands of Right.
